Senior Play

"Hillbilly Weddin" was a rollicking comedy about Paw Belsnickle's almost futile attempts to marry off his homely daughter Ceelie. The problem was that Paw had several other pretty daughters who have come of age, and in hillbilly country the oldest must marry first. Paw tried to make Ceelie attractive—she even got her first bath, but to no avail until the appearance of a well-dressed city gentleman changed the course of their lives. There is a typical "Hillbilly Weddin" and the story ends happily for all. The play was coached by Mr. Rieck.

Junior Play

"The Perfect Idiot" was a three-act force which involved the unique problems of Danny Tennyson, a boy genius and his comrades. Dan, who was a nationally famous quiz show expert, had been fired from his appearances by the confused Mr. Latherby, the soap manufacturing sponsor of the program. Roger, who was Dan's father, the principal of the school, and his teachers all became implicated in the plot. As if this weren't enough, Dan fell in love with the principal's daughter, became hypnotized and was examined by a zany German psychiatrist. But all Dan's problems were solved in the hilarious ending. Mr. Rieck coached the play.

WHAT IS SUCCESS?

Success means doing, day by day,
The very best you can,
It's going on, yet taking time
To help your fellow man . . .
To make your mark, to reach your goal,
To take your rightful place.
To strive and strive and strive again,
Yet wear a smiling face . . .
To make the most of what you have,
To build and not to lean,
To take what happens with a heart
That's steadfast and serene . . .
It's knowing how to meet success,
To handle joy and sorrow,
Believing in your inmost heart
There's always a tomorrow!
It's keeping on when heart and soul
And courage seem to fail,
Convinced that faith and hope and WORK
Are certain to prevail!
